

Steel comes standard with Mojo

Truecore[®]
THE INNER STRENGTH

Build your future with the protection and strength of Truecore[®] steel.

Mojo ensures your home has more strength upfront by offering steel frames, trusses and joists as standard in every new home. No upgrade required!

MOJO
HOMES

100% steel frames, trusses and joists – no hybrid here!

Your new Mojo home will be built with a precision-engineered steel frame, trusses and floor joists as standard. So you can experience more joy in life now and for many years to come.

With an incredible strength-to-weight ratio, you can achieve an inspired, architect-designed open plan lifestyle, complemented by the ability to finish off your home with your choice of COLORBOND® steel or Boral roof tiles.

Australian made, for Australian conditions
