IMPORTANT NOTICE: The items in this list refer to the MOJO MORE product range only. MOJO Homes advises that any inclusion items are subject to change without notice and reserve the right to change suppliers and/or alter designs and specifications without notice in whole or part. Any changed inclusion items will be of an equivalent finish, quality and standard to the original inclusion item. MOJO Homes guarantees the structural performance of its frame, slab and footings for 25 years from the date of contract to its customers. If there is a structural failure of any of these items (being class 3 damage or above as defined by the Australian Standard), MOJO Homes will rectify that structure at no cost. This 25 year guarantee is not transferable and may be void due to storm, fire, flooding, subsequent building works, trees, retaining walls or site conditions outside of the control of the builder including latent conditions, or where loss or damage arises due to a failure by the owner to ensure site maintenance, termite treatments or site drainage requirements, including in accordance with advice from MOJO Homes at handover.
